So They Say

"Of all the things you wear, your expression is the most important."
 - Janet Lane

"Of course I look at the glass half full. The only time I would look at it half empty is when I think about how good the first half tasted."
 - Drew Deyoung

"Everywhere is walking distance if you have the time."
 - Steven Wrigh

Believe It or Not

▶ M&Ms were created so that military soldiers could enjoy heat resistant and easy to transport chocolate during war.

▶ Martin Luther King Jr. convinced actress Nichelle Nichols (Lt. Uhura) not to quit her role on the original series of 'Star Trek' because he believed that showing a black woman working alongside white men would help advance racial equality.

▶ The pockets on men's dress clothing are often sewn shut to preserve aesthetics during transport to, and display in the store. These are functional pockets that can be opened up and are not fake pockets as many assume.

▶ The $100 bill is the most counterfeited bill of all time.

▶ The founder of Safeway supermarkets was a preacher who felt that credit purchases were evil, and named his cash-only stores to promote the "safe way to shop".

▶ The shape of ancient Egyptian pyramids is thought to have been inspired by the spreading rays of the sun.

▶ Those who watched black-and-white television as youngsters tend to have more monochrome dreams than children who watched color television.
